RIAL TO BE PRESENCED TO THE LEGISLA e of the Board of Co the visite. Albany on Weenesday to give to bers e. the Legislature any information they sire, relative to the operations of that commis-lain port returned to New York yesterday They report that the bill proposed, asking propriation of $200,000 to continue the exbefore the Committees of the Whole in the Senate and Assembly. Action will be taken probably on Tuesday. The bill does not anticipate the extension of the same privileges to immigrants arriving at this port since the decision of the United States Supreme Court on March 20, 1876. The extension of and, medical or otherwise, after that decision, became a matter for Congress to regulate. There seems to be a feeling among the legislators that Congress should make the appropriation asked for in the bill now before them and that the State should not be taxed for that amount. In fact, during the last thirty years the State has not been called upon to expend a dollar for protection or and given to immigrants. The immigrants have paid for it themselves by the commutation fee, and have from that money allowed the State officers known as the Commissioners of Emigration to erect hospitals and asylums at Ward's Island which are now the property of the State, under the piedge from the State that such immigrants should be cared for if sick or destitute for they years after their arrival at this port.

No commutation fee nor head money can be now received. Therefore the number of applicants for relief must decrease for the next five years, after which time the demand must cease and the property and buildings revert to the State that the appropriation called for should be made immediately, in order that the Ward's Island and Caste Garden bureaus be continued as sanitary and police protections for the entire State.

The following memorial to the Legislature from the different benevolent societies interested in the welfare and as fetty of immigrants to this port was sent to Albany last night, and will be presented to the Scate and Assembly this morning:—
